BOOK VIDEOCALL

The videocall page offers authorized customers (members) a free videocall to help them out if they are stuck with a project or need help sorting out what materials to use, how to start a new project, or whatever they might need.

The form is made up of 4 inputs; email, calltype for what they need help with, booking date, booking time, and comment for them to describe what they need help with.

Upon submitting, they will receive a confirmation email.
